

Assistant Professor of Mathematics

The Department of Mathematics at Stillman College has an opening for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level to start in August 2015.

Minimum Requirements: Ph.D. in Mathematics.

Preferred Requirements: Prior teaching experience at the undergraduate level; working with students with diverse mathematical skills; and use of technology to improve mathematics instruction.

Position Responsibilities: Teach mathematics courses, mentor students, and engage in scholarly activities.

APPLICATION: Interested applicants must submit Curriculum Vitae, Stillman College Employment Application (http://www.stillman.edu/about_us/employment.aspx), a letter of application, transcripts of undergraduate and graduate studies, and three letters of reference to: Human Resources; Stillman College; 3601 Stillman Blvd.; Tuscaloosa, AL 35401 or send via email to lgoins@stillman.edu.